

BISHOP'S LODGE RANCH RESORT & SPA FACT SHEET

BISHOP'S LODGE:

From the moment guests step out into the mountain-forest surroundings, they see what sets Bishop's Lodge Ranch Resort & Spa apart from typical accommodations. The resort boasts 15 Santa Fe adobe-style lodges housing 91 unique rooms, many with kiva fireplaces, private courtyards and quaint balconies as well as eight exclusive gated villas. Here, the sights and sounds of nature combine with the city's deep-rooted history to create a unique ranch experience.

HISTORY:

The first archbishop of Santa Fe, Jean Baptiste Lamy, was drawn to the natural and tranquil beauty of the Tesuque Valley where he established his private retreat, La Villa Pintoresca, in 1853. Today, Bishop's Lodge Ranch Resort & Spa is dedicated to preserving Archbishop Lamy's history, 156-year-old chapel and tradition of generous and gracious hospitality at the very site where Lamy welcomed guests to experience his gardens, orchard and the natural beauty of his New Mexico estate.

EXPERIENCE LIKE NO OTHER:

Bishop's Lodge is a vivid reflection of Santa Fe, the nation's oldest capital city, where colorful reminders of nearly four centuries of Spanish, Native American and Southwestern cultures endure. Named one of the "Top 100 U.S. Resorts: America's Premier Retreats" by Travel+Leisure, Bishop's Lodge is perfect for a resort-style family vacation, fairytale wedding or corporate conference and is the only ranch resort in New Mexico. A soul-stirring retreat, Bishop's Lodge offers a wealth of signature features in an unforgettable atmosphere.

PLACE:

Bishop's Lodge is nestled in the shadows of the Sangre de Cristo Mountains on 450 verdant acres in the Tesuque Valley of Northern New Mexico. As a secluded sanctuary surrounded by the Santa Fe National Forest, Bishop's Lodge is just minutes from the city's famous Plaza and its wealth of independent boutiques, authentic dining and lively outdoor music venues. The hotel exudes the soul of old Santa Fe in a stunning setting.

THE RANCH:

Presiding over 450 scenic acres, Bishop's Lodge Ranch Resort & Spa is the premier choice of Santa Fe resorts providing four full seasons of exciting recreation. Long summer days are spent by a beautiful outdoor pool surrounded by lush lawns and towering cottonwoods. During spring and fall, guests explore the adjacent Santa Fe National Forest on guided horseback trail rides and enjoy dazzling views of rolling foothills and majestic

The stables at Bishop's Lodge allow guests to experience the ranch's 450 acres of spectacular alpine scenery on horseback, with group, private, sunset and special children's rides available year-round and led by expert wranglers. Prior to rides, guests are encouraged to visit and meet the horses, and wranglers provide orientation and instruction on the trail to help understand the nature of the equine.

ACCOMMODATIONS:

Traditional rooms reflect the historic beginnings of the property and resort itself, with custom furnishings complemented by sand-colored bedding with accent pillows of olive, red and gold. King or two queen bed configurations are available. Lodge photos and other historic imagery and details complete the spaces.

Deluxe rooms offer the same Southwestern-inspired feel as traditional rooms with an earthen palette and woven carpeting. Comfortable seating areas and traditional kiva fireplaces join period furnishings and artwork recalling the early beginnings of the resort. All deluxe rooms include a gas or wood burning fireplace and patio or balcony with lounge seating.

Superior deluxe and deluxe suites feature gas fireplaces and New Mexico-style furnishings and patios or balconies with al fresco seating. Suites include one king or two queen beds and queen sofa beds and offer views of the surrounding woods and mountain ranges. Soft color palettes of beiges, accented with Southwestern reds and yellows create classic spaces and a warm ambiance. Luxurious villas are set within the hills above Bishop's Lodge and are the ultimate in Santa Fe-style luxury. These pueblo-revival style two and three-bedroom patio homes provide privacy, tasteful design, two beautiful swimming pools and commanding views of the Tesuque Valley. Perfect for low-key getaways, villas offer the comforts of home and extensive modern conveniences, and villa guests may utilize all resort amenities and services.

LAS FUENTES RESTAURANT & BAR:

Las Fuentes Restaurant & Bar offers creative Nuevo Ranchero cuisine that melds Spanish, New Mexican, French and Native American flavors created by Executive Chef and Certified Sommelier Christopher McLean. The inspired dining area features majestic beamed ceilings, authentic Navajo rugs and commissioned murals by early Santa Fe artist W.E. Rollins. For dinner, guests choose flavorful entrées from "the waters" or "the mountain top," with each dish created to provide variety for differing tastes. Dress is informal by day and dressy casual in the evening.
