Bishop's Lodge Ranch Resort & Spa is a historic destination ranch resort nestled at the base of the Sangre de Cristo Mountains. Wrapping around a 156 year-old historic chapel, the resort includes 15 Santa Fe adobe-style lodges housing 91 unique rooms, many with kiva fireplaces, private courtyards and quaint balconies as well as eight gated villas. Bishop's Lodge Ranch Resort & Spa is also home to the serene SháNah Spa, and the on-site Las Fuentes Restaurant & Bar offers creative Nuevo Ranchero cuisine crafted by Executive Chef Christopher McLean in an inspired environment featuring majestic beamed ceilings and authentic Navajo rugs.

Presiding over 450 scenic acres, Bishop's Lodge provides four full seasons of exciting recreation including horseback riding at the stables, skeet and trap shooting, mountain biking, tennis courts and clinics, miles of hiking trails, sunset cookouts, yoga, history tours and more. A member of Historic Hotels of America, a program of the National Trust for Historic Preservation and brand of Preferred Hotel Group, Bishop's Lodge boasts serene meeting spaces including four conference rooms totaling 8,000 square feet.
