

Bishop's Lodge Offers Special Room Rates to New Mexico Residents Affected by Natural Gas Shortage

Santa Fe, NM, February 3, 2011 – Due to the natural gas shortage in New Mexico, Santa Fe's Bishop's Lodge Ranch Resort & Spa would like to extend a special room rate to those affected by this crisis. The resort is offering a special room rate of $89.00 and waiving the resort fee.

"Since Bishop's Lodge has been a part of New Mexico for over 156 years, we are deeply concerned for the generations of families in our community. We would like to extend this special rate to anyone affected by the current weather conditions," said Bishop's Lodge Managing Director Rich Verruni.

For more information and to make a reservation, please call 505-983-6377.

For press information, please contact:

Rachel Silva
Ballantines PR
505 795 5353
rachel@ballantinespr.com

About Bishop's Lodge Ranch Resort & Spa:

The Bishop's Lodge Ranch Resort & Spa is a classic, historic destination resort minutes from downtown Santa Fe. Bishop's Lodge is a member of Historic Hotels of America, a program of the National Trust for Historic Preservation and brand of Preferred Hotel Group. Meeting spaces include four conference rooms totaling 8,000 square feet, fully wired with high-speed Internet access. Outdoor spaces are available for receptions and activities. Business support services are available, as well as catering and culinary planners. Bishop's Lodge is ranked by Travel & Leisure magazine as one of America's premier retreats. To make a resort or spa reservation, call 800-732-2240 or visit www.bishopslodge.com.

