

Bishop's Lodge Announces "Crazy" Giveaway

Santa Fe, N.M., February 18, 2010 – Bishop's Lodge Ranch Resort & Spa is giving movie-goers the chance to stay where scenes of the movie "Crazy Heart" were filmed. The contest will begin this Friday, February 19th at UA DeVargas 6, where the film is currently showing. The package includes:

- ▶ Complimentary night's stay in La Villa Pintoresca, the Presidential Suite
- ▶ Dinner for two at Las Fuentes Restaurant & Bar
- ▶ Skeet shooting
- ▶ Two movie passes
- ▶ A special welcome gift

The entire package is valued at $1,800.00. The winner will be announced on Saturday, March 27th.

Santa Fe's incredible lighting, colorful skies and breath taking scenery created a perfect environment for the filming of "Crazy Heart." Nine days were spent filming the production at the Bishop's Lodge Ranch, Resort and Spa. This secluded sanctuary resides on 450 stunning acres in the Tesuque Valley of Northern New Mexico and is surrounded by a beautiful array of mountainous scenery. It is located just minutes from the Santa Fe plaza and considered to be among the best retreats in America by Travel + Leisure Magazine.

For more information on Bishops Lodge Ranch, Resort & Spa, please visit www.bishops lodge.com

For press information, please contact:
Rachel Silva
Ballantines PR
505 216 0889
Rachel@ballantinespr.com

